ENGLAND.

House of Commons.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—In the House of Commons, Mr. Gladstone promised early to introduce practical measures for education in Ireland and Scotland. He also informed the House that a reciprocity treaty with Austria would be some time before it, and would afford an opportunity for thorough discussion of the commercial treaties.

The Postmaster-General announced that in deference to the universal complaint, the restoration of the service of giving receipts for payment of telegraphic tolls was under consideration.

Mr. Childers, first Lord of the Admiralty, laid before the House the estimates for expenditure of the Navy, which amount to about a quarter of millions sterling. He proceeded to explain and justify the estimates, laying great stress on the outlay required for the building of iron clads. He stated that when all the vessels now in process of construction were completed, the iron clad fleet would consist of 2 broadside ships of the largest class, 6 of the 2nd class, 6 of the 3rd, 4 of the 4th, and 3 of the 5th of the present ships there would be 2 of 1st class, 2 of 2nd, and 3 of 3rd; besides these there were a number of smaller iron vessels. This fleet would place England on an equal footing with the highest naval power in the world. He proposed, in order to keep its strength up to the standard, to add yearly 20,000 tons of Navy including 12,000 tons of armored and torpedos ships and fast frigates.

THE LATEST.

Mr. Childers then proposed and explained the scheme for the retirement of naval officers. He said that in making this proposal he was not only for the Navy, the Government sought to promote efficiency, economy, and general convenience in the service, and he believed these three objects could be attained.

Mr. Curry, formerly First Lord of Admiralty, made a lengthy defence of the administration of naval affairs of Her Majesty's Government. After further discussion by members, the House voted the supplies asked for.

Mr. Childers Bill making reforms in the War Office, was considered and passed in Committee, after which the House adjourned.

BELLEVILLE, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10

GRAND TRUNK.—The morning express from the East passed here at 10:30 this morning, being up to date of four hours late. The "Hibernian" mails and passengers were on board.

CONCERT.—On next Friday evening, 18th inst., the Blairton choir will give a concert in Rev. Mr. Wild's church, in this town. The performers have a high reputation, and we hope to see a large audience present to welcome them, the more especially as the proceeds are for a charitable object.

Spence Goods.—Our Merchants are beginning to receive their Spring Goods, a fact which will be gratifying to the ladies. Geo. Ritchie & Co. announce the first lot of Spring Importations, which is large and choice. W. H. & L. Graham advertise the receipt of a fine lot of Tweeds; and Mr. Johnson, after taking stock, finds that advertising pays, and announces the arrival of Spring Hats and Caps.

The Old Landmark.—Our old citizens are passing away. It is our painful duty to notice this day the death of another old resident, Mrs. Deane, wife of James Deane, Esq. She came to Belleville with her husband upwards of forty years ago, and has lived here to see the town grow from very small beginnings to what it is now. She was well known to many in this community, and highly respected.

A MEAN THIEF.—Every person has, doubtless, heard of a man named "mean" who used to rob a hen-roost. That such a character exists in Belleville or somewhere near it we have undoubted evidence, for on Friday night last the premises of Mr. W. H. Vantassell, front of St. James, were entered, and about twenty-five dollars worth of stock was stolen. It appears that the thief or thieves have not been content with that, for several of Mr. Vantassell's neighbors have suffered in a similar manner. We hope that the perpetrators may be located, and an effectual stop put to their further depredations.

TRENTON RACES.—The sport yesterday at Trenton was of an interesting character, and the attendance at the races was large. The first event, a purse of $15 for "green" horses, was won by "Lance Light" in three and one-half minutes. Following this came a running race, for which there were three entries, "Old Rye," "Julia Dean" and an unnamed bay gelding. The first two heats were taken by "Julia Dean," after a close struggle, but went of condition told against her in the third following heat, which was secured by "Old Rye." Today's race promises to elicit as much interest as that of yesterday. For the lakery, a purse of $100 there are three entries, Mr. W. Fanning's "Dutchman," Mr. Power's "Lance Light," and owner's "Mascara." Betting runs high, but "Dutchman" is the favorite at odds of 5 to 3. There is another race of minor importance to be decided this afternoon.

The Banking Resolutions.

The Government scheme for the renewal of the Bank Charters has been accepted by a very large majority in the House of Commons, showing that Mr. Hicks, upon this question, as we trust he will upon others, which may come before the House, forges with his own individual opinions, as expressed years ago, and accedes to those who have a better knowledge of the requirements of the country than he, from his long absence, can possibly have.

Mr. Hicks avowed his preference for a Bank of Issue, pure and simple, with but one class of paper currency, that of Dominion Notes. Upon this point he has many followers, though opposed by the different bankers and those whom they can influence in the country. For our own part we cannot concur in the serious objections which many men urge against such a scheme, and the only really valid one is the fear that in the time of financial difficulties the notes might possibly become, as the American greenbacks are, irredeemable, and consequently depreciate in value. Under all the circumstances, there, the proposed measure may be accepted as nearest the best, particularly as the Government succeeded in securing the support and influence of the Banks, no doubt, through the meeting of bankers held some time ago in Toronto, the proceedings of which were published in the Toronto Telegraph at the time, but which it was found convenient to deny. Events, however, have proved the correctness of what was stated at the time, that the Banks had had the Government scheme foisted upon them, and that they accepted it in consideration of being relieved of the tax now imposed upon their circulation.

At present as we understand it, the Banks get the profits arising from the small note circulation. By this scheme the profits and advantages from this circulation will go into the public exchequer. By the present system ten per cent of the reserves is held by the Banks in Provincial Debentures on which the Government, that is the people, pay six per cent and the remaining forty per cent lies idle or partially so, in the vaults of the banks. By the proposed plan, Dominion notes not bearing interest, will take the place of the above fifty per cent of the Bank reserves, and the people reap the advantages of the use of the 50 per cent in gold, displaced by the Dominion notes, with the exception of such portion of it as may be necessary for the Government to hold in order to be prepared to redeem such of the Dominion notes as may chance to be presented for redemption.

Taking the scheme as a compromise between actual free trade in Banking, and a Bank of Issue, we incline to the opinion that the Banks and the representatives of the people have pursued a wise and judicious policy in accepting it.

There are some of the details of this scheme which we trust will be amended, more particularly that resolution which provides that no new Bank shall be established with a less capital than $1,000,000, which if adopted would effectually prevent the establishment of Banks in rural parts of the country.

Our Manufacturers.

For the last two or three years a large number of Agricultural Implements, chiefly Mowers and Reapers, have been brought here from a distance and sold to the farmers of Hastings and Prince Edward. We do not find fault with this, but rather take it as an evidence of the increasing prosperity and wealth of the Agricultural community. The very large demand for these labor saving machines shows that our farmers are making rapid strides in all that concerns their material prosperity, and are keeping pace with the advancement of the age. It did appear, however, a little singular that these Implements should be brought here and sold in such large quantities, when we had extensive Manufactories at our very doors, which are capable of competing with any similar establishments in the Dominion. It is gratifying to find that some of these Manufactories are turning their attention to the manufacture of these Implements, and heretofore will be able to supply the demand of these Counties without the necessity of going abroad.

This will secure to us the forty or fifty thousand dollars which is annually sent abroad, and help to feed and clothe hundreds of additional artisans and mechanics. One of these firms, that of Messrs. G. & J. Brown, has, within the last year or two, made vast improvements to their establishment, and now they have one of the best arranged, one of the most complete, and one of the largest Iron Works in Ontario. It is three hundred feet in length, and on Church Street one hundred and fifty feet in width. The moulding room, the blacksmith shop, machine shop, wood shop, engine room, boiler room, pattern room, &c., are all adapted to the business, and are adapted to carry on the extensive business which the Messrs. Brown are engaged. All the latest and most improved machinery for wood and iron are to be found here, and the sight worth seeing to pass through the different departments, the workmen busy working in wood and iron, fashioning and making ploughs and cultivators, and stoves and kettles, and reapers and mowers, and threshing machines, and great huge cylinders, and iron castings, and engines, and a hundred other articles, as the bill says, "too numerous to mention."

But what we wished to call more particular attention to, is the fact that heretofore it will not be necessary to go abroad for Reapers and Mowers and other Agricultural Implements for the Messrs. Brown have made arrangements to manufacture these articles as good and as cheap as can be obtained in the Dominion. Amongst the implements now under way, and in the course of being completed, is "Dodge's Old Dickey's" Combined Mower and Reaping Reaper, which can be used either as a Reaper, a Mower, or Combined, and which possesses all the latest additions and some new improvements, which the manufacturers contend place it ahead of anything in the market. A lot of these are now in course of construction, and will be ready for the coming season. This firm also contemplate the manufacture, on a more extensive scale, of all kinds of Agricultural Implements.

We must not forget to notice in this connection, the Sewing Machine Manufacture of Mr. James Barrett, which is in part small as yet, but from the energy and enterprise of the proprietor, and from his long experience in the business, and from the almost unexampled success he has met with since he commenced, he will evidently soon have to find larger quarters. In addition to making what is known as the Iron Sewing Machine, he is constructing a new instrument, which we see the finest and at the same time the most correct work, and which has improvements that place it second to none made. Success to him!

A public telegram says, "Lord Rosebery has consented to leave full bench and to accept as Sir Charles Morley's agent to preside." "Selling venue arising from report heavy eastern gales in the Atlantic. Vast fields of ice floating southward much earlier than usual." "It is said that the Government has now issued orders for the suppression of 'chaque' paper in Ireland." "The Mayor of Montreal is dangerously ill."

From Saturday last Tuesday, 24th inst. were reported from Kingston to the S. S.

The Abortion Case.

The Coroner's jury in the Abortion case resumed the investigation last evening and sat with closed doors, no one but the witnesses being allowed to be present.

Several witnesses were examined, whose evidence we will publish at the termination of the inquest. No direct evidence implicating any particular party was given, but the whole of the testimony was, as a consequence, unusually large. The first case which occupied the attention of the Court, was a charge of ABORTION, preferred by one Simmons against "a party by the name of Sloan." It being proved to the satisfaction of the Court that due cause and provocation had been given by the complainant, by brutally beating his little daughter, from which defendant compelled him to desert, the Magistrate dismissed the case with costs against complainant.

The calendar this morning was very heavy, and the attendance of suitors was as a consequence, unusually large. The first case which occupied the attention of the Court, was a charge of Laid Over.

The adjourned case of McArthur vs. Gerow, for aiding and abetting in an assault upon Selma and Charles Tait, were further laid over till Friday.

The next case was that against Mary Rodie, for keeping a disorderly house. Two witnesses, John Joyce and John Baker, having failed to appear, warrants were issued to compel their attendance.

Mr. Rodie was also charged, with selling liquor without license. Evidence to sustain the charge was taken, and at the request of Mr. Plan, who appeared for Mrs. Rodie, the case was laid over till Friday.

James Sheelin and John Lawlor were charged by Mr. Reynolds with causing a disturbance in his tavern on Monday afternoon last. After the examination of witnesses, this case was also adjourned till Friday.

Parliament Yesterday.

A number of petitions were presented, praying for the removal of the excise duty on petroleum. Mr. Dunkin introduced his Census Bill, explaining its nature and showing the desirability of having the information collected full and accurate, and for this purpose Commissioners would be appointed who would act on oath. Each Province of the Dominion was to be subdivided into sections, to correspond with existing electoral districts, and these were to be again subdivided into districts, agreeing with municipal divisions.

Mr. Blake enquired if, at the completion of the census in '71, there would be any change in the basis of representation.

Sir John A. Macdonald said a change was contemplated, and a measure would be introduced to effect such change when the census was completed.

Mr. Stephenson enquired as to the newly proposed way of remunerating postmen.

Sir John A. Macdonald explained the plan by which the payment depended upon the amount of business transacted.

Mr. Holton asked when the financial statement would be brought down.

Sir Francis Hincks was not yet in a position to reply.

The House went into Committee on the Banking Bill.

Sir A. T. Galt enquired whether it was the intention of the Government to have a special reserve against the four millions, independent of the reserve against the subsequent issue of four millions.

Sir Francis Hincks said that only four millions were to be issued on the security of debentures. The Government would not issue any more securities when the amount of gold in its possession was to the extent of 25 per cent, not only of the four millions, but of any additional amount might be added to it.

Sir A. T. Galt understood that the Government would hold specie against the four millions and would not issue any notes having the character of legal tender.

Sir Francis Hincks explained that by the present system the Government was obliged to hold more specie than was required by law, because if they had not another reserve of upwards of $200,000 they would have to sell securities to meet any diminution of the 25 per cent.

The discussion of the resolution was then proceeded with, and Sir Francis Hincks said he was willing to accede to the wishes of the members in reducing bank capital from one million to five hundred thousand; but that the percentage of the capital to be paid up should be forty per cent, instead of twenty.

Several members were in favor of a small capital for small banks in rural districts. But Sir Francis Hincks would not yield on this point, though he would be willing to grant special charters under special circumstances, and that existing banks would get their charters renewed.

The first six resolutions, after some further discussion, were carried. The seventh was withdrawn. To the twelfth an additional clause was proposed.

After noon, Sir Francis Hincks stated that his deposition of bankers from New Brunswick had arrived in town with some important suggestions, and he would wish the further consideration of the resolutions to be postponed till Friday, for the purpose of consulting with them.

The Committee then rose and reported progress.

The House went into Committee on the Dominion notes revolution of the currency scheme. A long discussion ensued, and the several resolutions were passed, and the Committee rose and reported.

The Hon. Dr. Tupper referred to the proposed change in the currency, and said it could not be effected without great inconvenience to the people of Nova Scotia.

Sir John A. Macdonald said he was willing to postpone the consideration of the matter till Friday.

A debate next ensued on the powers of the arbitrators and the House rose at 10:30 p.m.

The Abortion Case.

MADON, March 7, 1870.
Permit me, through your columns, to thank you on behalf of every right-thinking man in the community, for the stand you have taken in the case of the unfortunate girl Dwyer, who was so brutally treated both before and after her confinement, and who, in Belleville, is now in what is called the "Belle Isle" asylum, as a deserter of the contempt of the whole community. This is not the first dark act of this quarter, as it well known.

Yours, &c.
J. J. JONES.

RED RIVER.

Mr. Editor, The prospect of a railroad company to be built from the mouth of the Red River to the mouth of the St. Lawrence, has been a subject of much interest to the people of this section. I am also informed that a Company has been organized to build a railroad from the mouth of the Red River to the mouth of the St. Lawrence, and that the project is well advanced. In addition to the above there are parties interested in a suitable place to start a Shilling Factory. This matter will be treated and discussed in the contemplated Kingston and Madoc Railway.

Yours, &c.

KILLED—ABOUT SCHULTZ—COMMISSIONERS OF THEIR WAY TO CANADA.

The Toronto Telegraph's correspondent sends the following dispatch:

St. Paul, Minn., March 8.—A letter, dated Pembina, 24th Feb., February, has been received. It says that little news since last mail. The New Nation was issued as usual on February 18th; but the edition was suppressed and not distributed, as it contained news which the Provisional Government wished to withhold from the public for the present.

Gaily, who was reported to be executed was ordered to be executed to prevent mob violence. He was taken into a private place by three captives, and they afterwards reported to the soldiers and the people that he was executed; but the man is clothed in so much mystery that his death is doubted.

When Mr. Boulton and party went from Fortage La Prairie to the lower Settlement with Dr. Schultz, Wm. Gddy was sent by Schultz to the Dasse Settlement to induce them to join Schultz, and while at Dasse's house a man named La Voucher was arrested. La Voucher promised to take the oath of allegiance to Bell, and was liberated and placed on guard duty by Bell. He, however, escaped from his comrades with his musket. After escaping, La Voucher met a young man named Southworth, whom he shot and killed. He was pursued by the soldiers, and, after a fight, was brought back to Fort Garry as prisoner, badly wounded.

When Rell's men came to capture Schultz at the Stone Fort, he was not to be found. There was no person in the Fort except the ordinary employees and officers of the Hudson's Bay Company. The Fort was supposed to be with the Indian allies, near the mouth of the Red River.

The Scotch and part of the English have succeeded in their efforts to get Bell and Boulton, and only furnished them with rations, because they were forced to.

Commissioners Smith, DeSalaberry, Thibault and Delegates Scott, Rich and Black, were expected at Pembina on the evening of the 24th on their way to Canada.

The letter concludes by saying—By order of the State Department at Washington, selection had been collected at Pembina to that the Hon. Mr. DeSalaberry violated his neutrality. The testimony goes forward by mail.

There is nothing further about Major Boulton.

Poultry—Eggs are high. The fresh of poultry brings a fair price except when a glutted market is followed by a lull at this season. To secure eggs in winter, fowls must have light quarters, where they will spend only the night, but never days in the comfort, provided by a warm and wind-light lantern or enclosed "house," where manure is thrown from the stable, are placed which almost every farmer can arrange. Feed well, watch for crop, or any such disease; remove wheezing tools and with colds, and give them tonic and stimulating diet. Give fowls no feed-mashed potatoes with meal or wheat screening, swelled oats, or cracked corn, wet soaked during the day, mingling it with cayenne pepper now and then, feeding corn, barley, buckwheat, or other hard feed at evening. Water ought not to freeze in a hen house except on the severest night, and the house, roosts and nest-boxes should be kept as clean as in the spring or summer. Dry earth is useful as a deodorizer.

BELLEVILLE, FRIDAY, MARCH 11.

BRITISH TEMPLARS.—A change has been made in the list of meeting of this Society, Friday having been substituted for Thursday. See advertisement in another column.

CANADA PACIFIC RAILWAY.—It is said in Ottawa that a strong combination is formed for the purpose of building the Dominion Pacific Railway; also a road from Pembina to Fort Garry.

CHEATING THE REVENUE.—The Dry Goods house of Messrs. Rooney & Co., Toronto, has been seized by the Customs House authorities for an alleged fraud on the Revenue. The amount is estimated at about $15,000. Cooked invoices are supposed to have been the media operandi.

INDIAN CONCERT.—On Tuesday evening next, the Indians of the Alawick Mission, choir, under the direction of Professor Kiewit, purpose entertaining the inhabitants of Belleville by giving a concert at Ontario Hall. The concert will be interspersed by short speeches from Rev. John Sunday, chief of the band, and other speakers. We hope to see crowded houses on the occasion.

PROHIBITION IN PRINCE EDWARD.—It is contended that the By-law passed by Prince Edward, prohibiting the sale of liquor, is a "dead letter," the seal of the corporation not having been attached to it. At a meeting of the Town Council, on the 7th inst., a motion to read certificates of license to the tavern keepers was applied for, and a vote was taken six voting for and six against. It is said the tavern keepers propose opening their houses and selling usual, and in case of prosecution, will fight it out in the higher courts.

THE BANKING RESOLUTION.—A despatch from Ottawa says: The banking resolutions were considered by the bankers here yesterday, and it is some 15 alterations or changes in the details of the scheme were decided on. The Committee appointed to wait on the Finance Minister met, and reported to the publishers of the Red River papers, including the names of parties, which the Select Committee to which these papers had been referred, had thought advisable to strike out.

HORRIBLE DEATH.—Frank Purdy, a teamster and his wife, of Toronto, were found this morning in their house dead. Purdy was lying at the foot of the stairs, his face in a pool of blood; his wife was found dead in bed, and from the appearance of the face, appeared to have died of a fit. It is surmised that she was seized with a fit, and Purdy becoming alarmed went for a doctor. Being under the influence of liquor, and also no doubt excited on his wife's account, it is thought that he fell down the stairs, was stunned by the fall, and was suffocated in the blood which flowed from his wound. An inquest is being held.

Police Court.

(Before A. Diamond, Esq., Police Magistrate.)

FRIDAY, March 11th.

THE ADJUDGED CASE OF McARTHUR.—The case of McArthur, Esq., was being discharged, while a fine of $5 and costs was inflicted upon Cornelius.

David Gower, for aiding and abetting the assault on Mr. McArthur, was adjudged to pay a like penalty.

LADY OVER.

The adjourned case of Reynolds vs. Shevlin, and charges against Mrs. Roche for selling liquor without license; also, Mrs. Roche against Shevlin and Sullivan, was laid over at the request of counsel, until Tuesday. The case against Mrs. Roche for keeping a house of ill fame, was proceeded with, the two missing witnesses, Joyce and Burke, being on hand. Their evidence, however, did not go to substantiate the principal charge. The Magistrate, therefore, promised his decision for Tuesday.

Who is He?

In the Belleville correspondence of the Toronto Telegraph, of yesterday, we find the following: "On Saturday evening last, a prominent Fenian sympathizer in this town, while in a tavern, observing a portrait of Prince Arthur, hanging up, deliberately went up to it, pulled out his knife and cut his head off, and trampled it under foot. This 'what he would do if he had the power.' It is a pity he can't be induced to leave the country. His absence from the Fenian ranks is a loss to the cause. Who is he? We had hoped that Fenianism was stamped out in this town, or that those who ever had any sympathy that way, had made up their minds that it was not a paying business, and had determined upon turning over a new leaf, and becoming quiet, peaceable, loyal subjects of Her Majesty. It seems, however, that some of the old leaven still remains, and every now and again shows itself. But, who is this Fenian sympathizer that committed such a gross outrage? Who saw him perpetrate this low-down and contemptible act? We pause for a reply.

What Does it Mean?

A telegram from Montreal yesterday, says that Mr. Devlin has applied to the "Court of Queen's Bench, in appeal to quash the proceedings in the Notman case, on the ground of irregularity. The Attorney General who was present, did not oppose the application. What does it mean? The effect of not opposing the application, is an understood will secure the freedom of the criminal, and this informality will invalidate any future criminal proceedings against him. Are we to understand that the Attorney General consented at first that the application be granted, but not resist the application? Probably some of the Montreal journals will speculate upon this subject.

Daily Intelligencer.

BELLEVILLE, SATURDAY, MARCH 12.

DOMINION TELEGRAPH CO.—This company is depositing poles on the road between Kingston and Belleville. The company is evidently not dead yet.

THE ABORTION CASE.—The inquest was resumed last evening, and after some unimportant testimony had been heard the inquiry was further adjourned until Tuesday.

CLOVER.—The revival meetings which have been going on nightly for some time at the Bridge Street W. M. Church, were brought to a conclusion last night. The results, we understand, have been most gratifying.

HON. MR. McDONNELL.—The Ottawa Citizen of yesterday says: "We understand that the Hon. Mr. McDougall's illness has assumed a more serious phase, and that Dr. VanCortlandt and Grant have been called in. We sincerely trust that the hon. gentleman may safely pass the crisis of his disease."

PROGRESS.—The Admission Book says: "Messrs. H. B. Rathbun & Son, of Mill Point, are engaged in building an extensive wharf on the south side of the river at Napier, for the shipment of their lumber to be sawed at the Napier Mills, recently purchased by them. The Society is pushing men, and will add very much to the interests of Napier."

I. P. B. S.—The concert which this Society intended having on the evening of Saint Patrick's Day, is unavoidably postponed for a few weeks. The Society is determined to make it the concert of the season. We understand that several of our leading amateurs have kindly consented to give their services. As the proceeds are intended solely for benevolent purposes, we have no doubt but that it will be largely attended.

PROFESSOR STONE.—After an absence of seventeen years, during which period he has travelled through different parts of the globe, Prof. G. W. Stone returns to give a series of his amusing and interesting biological lectures, which he proceeds each evening by philosophical examinations. He has lately visited Montreal, Ottawa and Belleville, each of which places the press has highly praised his performance. The Professor commences at Ontario Hall, on Monday night, continuing on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday. Go and see him.

MUNICIPAL LAW.—We are glad to learn that Thomas White, Esq., County Clerk, is about to issue a copy of the Municipal Act, Assessment and License Acts for the Province of Ontario. As officially printed, the Acts, with recent amendments, were arranged in such a logical and systematic manner, that great patience was required to ascertain what amendments had been made. Mr. White's work remedies this defect, and will no doubt be welcomed by all the different municipalities throughout the country.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The School of the Rev. Mr. Wild's Church gave a concert last evening. The audience was large and the exercises very interesting. The School received commendations from the Provincial Sabbath School Convention for a certain sum of money. The proceeds of said Concert were to meet the claims of the same. More than the amount was realized, and the public were entertained and the scholars benefited. We understand that Miss Haskins is in a flourishing condition.

A FENIAN RAID.—The Ottawa Evening Mail, of last evening says: "Reliable information has reached us from a gentleman in Chicago, who is well acquainted with the movements and designs of Fenian circles in that city, by which we learn that as soon as spring opens about 3,000 of the brotherhood will proceed to Red River singly and in detached parties, for the purpose of forcibly annexing the territory to the United States. It is further stated that the Fenians have been invited to take this action by O'Donoghue, one of the insurgent leaders at Winnipeg."

COOL CERTAINLY.—A telegram from Montreal says: "The St. Patrick's Society have sent invitations to the several Irish societies in Ontario and Quebec to co-operate with them on St. Patrick's day in petitioning the Government for the release of the Fenian prisoners at Kingston, on the grounds that the law has been sufficiently vindicated and the general good feeling displayed by the Irish in Canada, through the Fenian troubles and the St. Patrick's Society in particular authorities it." Cool, certainly considering the attitude of the Montreal St. Patrick's Society towards the Fenian troubles, and the Irishmen who stuck to him during the Fenian troubles.

A New Jersey grower, when complained to about selling bad eggs, says: "At this time of year the hens are sick, and often lay bad eggs."

Emigration.

The Emigration Agent for Ontario, Mr. Thomas White, has just not that in some respects his work, and it is evident that he fully understands how to do it. In the London Times of the 21st of February, we find him prominently and effectively refuting the calumnies uttered about Ontario, and quoting letters from emigrants sustaining his statements. The following are the concluding remarks of his letter in the London Times:

"It is perhaps unnecessary to add one word to this extract, but as your Rev. correspondent has in the periodical trials of emigration agents, and charges them with giving 'only the bright side of the picture,' carefully concealing all the dark features, I may add that life in Canada is in every other part of the world, has its dark as well as its bright side. It is idle to say that there is no poverty in Canada, for there is poverty all over the world, and it is idle to say that there is no crime in Canada, for there is crime all over the world. The emigrant must not work hard—harder, perhaps, than he has been accustomed to work in Canada, but it is willing to work, there is no danger of failure. During the coming season, few railways will be in course of construction, thus affording employment to a very large number of men. The farmers of the country are anxious to secure labor, and will readily employ a very large number of men. It is not in the least probable, as your correspondent says, that the emigrant will find himself unemployed in our towns and cities. The condition of society here is of course of course, and it is a willingness to accept whatever employment offers to the emigrant, and to work hard in performing it."

"I am, Sir,

Yours truly,

THOMAS WHITE, Junr.,

Special Commissioner of Emigration for the Province of Ontario.

In this connection, we must congratulate Mr. Commissioner Carling upon the timely appearance of his pamphlet upon emigration, as well as upon the valuable information it contains. It embraces about 36 pages, and to give an idea of the subjects upon which it treats, we give a list of the contents:

To Intending Emigrants: Agricultural Capabilities of the soil; the Agricultural Progress of Canada, as compared with that of the United States; the Province of Quebec; Quebec and Ontario; the Province of Ontario; the Climate of Canada; the Farming Interest of Canada; Municipal Institutions: General description and Statistics; Cities and Towns; Manufactures; Mines and Minerals; Postal System; Telegraphs; Railways; Canals; Roads; Law; Public Works; Banks and Currency; Money Trade; Religion; Taxation; the Public Press; Education in the Province of Ontario; Agricultural Department; Wages; Cost of Living; the Public Lands; the Free Grant Lands and Homesteads; the Canadian Land Company; the Canadian Land and Immigration Company; Roughing it in the Bush; the Farm in good order; Muskoka; Canadian Fruit.

There is a fund of valuable information, which is the hands of intending emigrants, and scattered widely over Great Britain and the Continent, cannot do an immense amount of good. The advantages which Ontario presents as a field for industry and enterprise, are well set forth in this pamphlet. A day of Ontario, with the recent Government surveys, and showing the Free Grant Lands, the Railroads in operation, the projected Railroads and Colonization Roads, accompanies the pamphlet. The Government of Ontario deserves credit for the practical steps it is taking to get the newly surveyed districts in the Province filled up by a good class of emigrants, and it is gratifying to know that they are using every means which can reasonably be employed to promote a healthy emigration.

Our Manufacturers.

In continuation of our article of Wednesday, we now purpose taking a further glance at our principal manufacturing establishments, taking each branch of business separately, at a more easy rate of comparing the progress made since our last notice. Our next visit, therefore, was to the BELLEVILLE FOUNDRY.

situated below Coleman's wharf, which has been for some years successfully carried on by Messrs. J. M. Walker & Co., successors to Messrs. R. & S. Patterson.

The main building is of stone, 40 by 80 feet, and is four stories high. It has a wing also of stone, 40 by 75 feet, in which are situated the moulding and blacksmith's shops. The premises were erected in 1859 by the late Wm. H. Coleman, for the Messrs. Patterson. The business conducted by Messrs. Walker & Co., is of a more general character than formerly, a large amount of new work being done, in addition to the manufacture of agricultural implements, which is still a leading feature of the establishment. At present, a considerable quantity of wood working machinery is being manufactured. The present proprietors have done much to maintain the always high reputation of this foundry as a first-class manufacturing, having introduced new machinery of the most approved construction, the effect of which has been observable in the large number of premiums carried off by agricultural shows. Their business is constantly increasing, and their newness is variously increasing, and their newness is variously increasing, and their newness is variously increasing.

Mr. Young said that the House would not be dependent on bankers. Mr. Crawford declared his entire independence of every bank in the country. Mr. Young thought the Finance Minister had acted wisely in obtaining the opinions of bankers and others. After recess Mr. Francis H. Hicks announced that he would withdraw his amendment relating to the scale of voting. Mr. Young said he would still press his motion that private bills be made terminable at the end of one year. After some discussion this amendment the amount of iron melted was 275 tons. The machinery is driven by two of Crompton's wheels, of about 40 horse-power each.

THE VICTORIA FOUNDRY.

which is owned and carried on by Mr. W. H. Wallbridge, is a manufacturer of considerable extent, the buildings, which are all of stone, three stories high, covering an area of half an acre. The chief branch of manufacture carried on here is in agricultural implements, for which there is a good demand. Mill work, the manufacture of steam engines, water wheels and machinery of all kinds is also carried on. During last summer Mr. Wallbridge visited England and the continent in quest of the latest improved agricultural machinery, of some of which he is about to commence the manufacture. Store and show rooms, substantially built of stone, have lately been added to the establishment, which is now very complete in every department.

The motive power for the machinery is furnished by a steam engine manufactured on the premises, and which attracted a good deal of attention at the agricultural show last year. It is certainly a beautiful piece of workmanship.

THE MORA FOUNDRY.

near Flint's & Yeomans' saw mill, which is at present in the occupation of Mr. Chas. Martin, and has for some years been successfully carried on by him, is just now "shut down" owing to the late floods, which filled the building with water to a depth of about twelve inches. Since the subsidence of the waters, Mr. Martin has been diligent in having his establishment cleared of the ice which had accumulated, and in a few days it will be in running order again. Of late a specialty has been made of mill work and the casting of iron railings, which are many of them, of beautiful design. Specimens of the latter can be seen at the Bridge Street Methodist Church, at the residence of the Hon. Billis Flint, and other places, and for beauty of design and finish, are not to be surpassed in the Dominion. The foundry is well fitted for the execution of the heavier descriptions of mill work, in which line its reputation is well established—over and agricultural implements are also manufactured. Steam is here the motive power. Employment is given to about ten men.

Parliament Yesterday.

The House was engaged for a considerable time with closed doors in discussing the question of privilege. After the doors were opened, and some minor business disposed of, Sir Francis Hicks moved that the House go into Committee on the Banking Resolutions. Sir Francis stated that the Government was desirous of giving consideration to the suggestions of the Bankers, and had accordingly made some changes with regard to detail. In Committee he explained the nature of these changes. In the resolution providing that Banks in hold 20 per cent. of their reserve in Dominion notes, the Government had modified their resolution so far as to provide that banks should, so far as practicable, hold 30 per cent. of their reserve in Dominion notes, and not less than 33 per cent.

Mr. Crawford proposed as an amendment to the fourth clause of the resolutions that in case the suspension of a bank should continue for six months, the directors might then, within thirty days, make calls on the shareholders to the amount necessary to pay all the liabilities. After a short discussion, Sir John A. Macdonald proposed that the words "ten days" be substituted, which was adopted. Sir Francis Hicks moved as an amendment to the seventh clause of the resolutions that shareholders, to be entitled to vote, should hold their stock for at least three months previous to the day of voting, that none but shareholders be allowed to vote by proxy, and that the scale of voting be regulated by the law of the province, as otherwise determined by the shareholders.

Mr. Young believed that great evils resulted from proxies being interchangeable, and moved, as an amendment, that they be invalid at the end of one year. Mr. Holtz said public opinion was in favor of giving each share a vote. Mr. Blake declared that the proposed change would cripple shareholders and hoped that the House would support Mr. Young's amendment.

Mr. Abbott hoped the House would not violate the agreements existing between the bank corporations and shareholders. Mr. Huntington believed that the Finance Minister had yielded himself completely into the hands of the bankers. Sir Francis Hicks said that the suggestions had emanated from the bank representatives, who had been holding meetings in Ottawa for two or three days past.

Mr. Holtz complained that the several important banking institutions had not been represented at these meetings. Mr. Mackenzie thought that the House should not be dependent on bankers. Mr. Crawford declared his entire independence of every bank in the country.

Mr. Young thought the Finance Minister had acted wisely in obtaining the opinions of bankers and others. After recess Mr. Francis H. Hicks announced that he would withdraw his amendment relating to the scale of voting. Mr. Young said he would still press his motion that private bills be made terminable at the end of one year. After some discussion this amendment was put and lost, and the Finance Minister's modified amendment was finally agreed to.

The House adjourned at 12 o'clock, after the resolutions, as amended, had passed.

THE MARMORA IRON WORKS.

A correspondent says: "We understand that in compliance with instructions received from headquarters, the men in the vicinity of the ore bed and Marmora, will at once be employed until mid-winter, in excavating the ore on hand, preparatory to shipping it to the States on the opening of navigation, and that arrangements are making for the employment of a large number of workmen early in the spring. Should the Belleville and Peterborough Railroad be built, it will pass within a short distance of the ore beds belonging to the Marmora Company, and there is no tangible reason why the ore should not be brought to Belleville and made to employ part of the immense water power in the neighborhood which is now running to waste."

ADAPTIVE MIMICRY IN PLANTS.

The Chloris viridis at Marmora says: "An extremely curious Chinese plant, called the Mimicry plant, is now in flower. It is a native of the East Indies, and is a very common plant. are seeking homes in other parts of the world will find plenty of opportunities for profitable employment and investment at handsome profits in making our country increasingly prosperous by their labor and enterprise.

Our County, with the proposed Railway facilities offers inducements for investment second to none in the Province of Ontario. We have longer lines of gravel roads than any other County in Canada, and these are free from toll. We have two large rivers running parallel upon the eastern and western boundaries. On these rivers and their tributaries are almost innumerable water privileges. Our people are enterprising and prosperous, and while the limits of our County are so broad almost every variety of soil and climate.

Our credit facilities, as a County is second to none and to be so is a demonstration of the responsibility of which it is that it does not rest on our management. I trust that the suggestions made will meet with your favorable consideration, and that they will conduce to the forwarding of the best interests of this fine County, and that the result of our labors for this year will satisfy the electors of the County, that their confidence was not misplaced.

REPORT.

The County Surveyor handed in his report, which was upon motion of Mr. Cross, seconded by Mr. Gaborie, referred to Committee of the Whole on Roads and Bridges.

The report of the Local Superintendent of Education for North Hastings was read, showing a large increase in the attendance of pupils, and that several new school houses were being erected.

Also, the report of the Local Superintendent of Education for South Hastings. A communication was read from C. S. Grawick, President of the Ontario Education Association, asking that a donation be made to said Association.—Referred to Committee of the Whole on Ways and Means.

A petition was presented from Owen Weese and others, asking for an appropriation to repair the road between the Town of Belleville and the Grand Trunk Railway Station.—Referred to the Committee on Roads and Bridges.

ROADS AND BRIDGES.

Committee went into Committee of the Whole on Roads and Bridges, Mr. Daly in the chair.

The County Surveyor's annual report, laid over from last session, was then taken into consideration. After the report of the County Surveyor, handed in at this session, was read, showing the state of roads and bridges, which are generally satisfactory.

The Warden suggested that the Survey in Tudor be left over till next summer. Mr. Francis could not be expected to pay his own expenses. It was accordingly laid over till the June session.

The Warden moved, seconded by Mr. Cross, That the expenditure on Roads and Bridges, except gravel roads, be limited to $3,000 for the present year.

In making this motion, the Warden explained that the large bridges were in good repair, and this would be found a sufficient sum to keep the small bridges and country roads in repair.

The Chairman said this was an important resolution, and he hoped it would meet with the approbation of the Committee, as the expenditure last year for this purpose was upwards of $9,000.

Mr. White said it was very well for the representatives of Turlow, where gravel roads traversed nearly the entire township, to talk of reducing the expenditure to this small sum. But how could it be with Tyndings, where gravel roads were scarce, and mud roads were the only means of communication? It was willing to go that the roads would be kept in a state of repair.

The Warden said Hantington, Hungerford, Madoc and other back townships which had long lines of country roads, might object also. Tyndings had no particular claims. If any applicant for a road, such as the struggling way of a bridge, an appropriation would be made if no money remained of the sum now proposed to be spent. People in the back country were willing to put up with some hardships at present, in view of the prospect of an early reduction in the debt of the county.

Mr. White said the roads in many parts of Tyndings were very bad, but the people there would be satisfied for their representatives to vote for this reduction if it would result in a reduction of taxation.

The Warden said he was not the time to talk of reducing taxation after large appropriations had been made. If Tyndings asked for an advance, other Townships would do the same. If they thought the time had come when a reduction could be made advantageously.

The Chairman said the question seemed to him, not where the expenditure was to be made, but how expenses could be reduced.

Mr. Cross thought Tyndings ought to be content to try what they could do for one year, with the reduced appropriation.

Hon. Mr. Plint said the tax levied in the County had hitherto been kept within the limits of a cent on the dollar, and if the rate could be reduced to half a cent, it would prove the alacrity of the Council in desiring economy. He could see no reason why they should not keep within their income. The debt had been reduced by $130,000 in nine years, and going on in the same way they would soon be in an independent position. In his township it was desirable to expend a considerable amount on roads, and the people were willing to bear a little for the purpose of getting out of debt.

The motion was then carried unanimously.

ROAD TO THE GRAND TRUNK STATION.

The petition of Owen Weese and others, asking for a grant to aid in repairing the road leading from the town of Belleville to the Grand Trunk Railway Station was then taken up.

Mr. Farley thought the petition should have been presented before the passage of Mr. P. P. It would have been presented by Mr. Wood, that the matter be laid over till the June session.

Mr. White would like to see the matter disposed of at once.

Hon. Mr. Plint thought the Town of Belleville and the Township of Turlow were the parties interested and the petition ought not to be entertained.

Mr. Diamond considered it was no more to the benefit of Turlow than it was to other parts of the county, from which people travelled to the Railway station. A small amount ought to be given.

The Warden was of opinion that it would be better to see about the settlement of affairs with the town, before doing anything for the benefit of its people.

He thought that by the June session it would be known what expenditure would be incurred in roads and bridges, and then, if a balance was unappropriated of the $3,000 vote, a grant might be made if the Council thought necessary.

The petition was accordingly laid over.

FRANKFORD BRIDGE.

The Warden would like to know whether the Committee wished the Frankford bridge repaired.

Hon. Mr. Plint thought it would be advantageous to do so.

Mr. Farley thought it would be the greatest folly for this rich county, which was worth ten times as much as any Insurance Company, to insure its property. They ought to be their own insurers.

After some further discussion, The Warden moved, seconded by Hon. Mr. Plint, That the Frankford bridge be insured in some good Company for $3,000.—Carried.

Mr. Armstrong moved, seconded by Mr. Rose, That the Township of Sidney be allowed to put lights on Frankford Bridge. The lights to be put up in a manner satisfactory to the agent of the Company, with which the insurance is effected.—Carried.

Committee rose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again.—Granted. Council resumed.

WAYS AND MEANS.

Committee went into Committee on Ways and Means. Hon. Mr. Plint in the chair.

A number of accounts were passed, and the Committee rose, reported progress and asked leave to sit again.—Granted.

The Council then adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow.

Daily Intelligencer.

BELEVVILLE, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 16.

POSTPONED.—We have been informed by telegram that the Sabbath School Convention for the Township of Madoc and Village of Stirling, which was to have been held in Stirling, was to have been postponed until after the 15th inst. Stirling and Madoc deserve the highest praise for their exertions in endeavoring to establish the first Township Sabbath School Convention in this county.

KINGSTON AND MADOC RAILROAD.—The Madoc Mercury says: "There was found, a very decided opinion on the part of some of the leading men in Hantington, that it is to the interest of the Township at large, and particularly to the northern and eastern portions of it, to aid the K. & M. R. R. by a Municipal bond; and steps are being taken to call a public meeting of the ratepayers to take the matter into consideration."

RUNAWAY.—About six o'clock last night a team of horses belonging to a Mr. McManis was seen to start out of Doyle's stable and over the Upper Bridge—dashing wildly up the College road at a 20 mile rate, and obstructed by a stout tree—thence into Keble's orchard, where the erratic animals were secured. One of them was out by the iron work of the bridge while crossing.

MOIRA FIRE COMPANY, No. 1.—The members of the Moira Fire Company intend to-morrow, if the day is favorable, to turn out in uniform, and honor the day by having a contest in darts with the purpose of sending to the De Wolf House Company of Oswego, from which this company lately received a handsome picture, which we noticed at the time.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—We trust to see a good turn out to-morrow to welcome the "13th of Ireland," as somebody facetiously calls the natal day of good St. Patrick. Englishmen and Scotchmen promise to aid the merriment of their respective national societies to swell the numbers of the process, which, if the weather prove at all favorable, promises to be large and respectable. Cad mille failles, and Erin go Bragh.

INDIAN CONCERT.—The Concert given last night in Ontario Hall by the Algonquin Musical Choir, led by Prof. Koenigsberg, was quite a success. The singing of the Choir was equal to and even better than many of the choirs composed of "male voices." The Concert was interspersed with short speeches by Rev. John Sunday, Chief of the Band, and that the sum of $70 was collected, which will go towards the erection of a new Church at the Indian Mission, Algonquin.

COUNTY COUNCIL.—The County Council

concluded its labors to-day at 11 o'clock. The day's proceedings will be found on our first page.

SENATE OF PRINCE EDWARD.—The Toronto Leader of to-day says: "We believe we are correct in stating that Mr. Gresham, M. P., will be appointed to the vacant Senate of this Country."

ENTERTAINMENT.—The musical and literary entertainment proposed to have been given this evening in the Temperance Hall, under the auspices of the O. O. of F. T. is postponed until Wednesday evening, consequent upon the storm of to-day.

TOWN ACCOUNTS.—In other columns will be found an abstract of the Town accounts for the year 1870, together with the Auditor's Report, submitted to the Council on Monday night. The statement is highly satisfactory, and will commend itself to the attention of the ratepayers.

SNOW.—A snow storm exceeding in fierceness any which has preceded it this winter, has been raging since 5 o'clock this morning. Up to the hour of going to press, upwards of a foot of snow has fallen, and the drift is heavy. We may therefore look for heavy roads for a few days. The Western train has had some hours behind time in consequence of the storm.

"The steamship City of Detroit arrived at Queenstown at one o'clock this morning."

Such was the brief announcement that flashed along the wires this morning, and made a whole continent rejoice. Brief, but golden words! Fancy, if you can, what a great relief they lifted from the hearts of the hundreds who had relatives and friends on board the noble vessel, which had bravely braved the waves of old Ocean for fifty days. Picture, if you can, the transformation of the scene in the households which were already mourning as those who had no hope, and whose inmates had been wearily waiting and watching for tidings from across the sea—waiting and watching until their eyes were dimmed, and their hearts were wet with sigh-broken—waiting and watching, and listening to the howling of the tempest which, sounding like a death-knell upon their ears, and almost fancying they heard the piteous cries of their loved ones as they went down into the sea's unfathomed depths—waiting and watching, until light dawned—dawned on a new day, but the faintest glimmer left. We all know—whose's a more interest is that ship's happy home, than we have of any other sort of humanity to whom we are strangers—what a relief that brief intelligence announcement gave us this morning.

Every one was glad. "Did you hear the glorious news?" It was in everybody's mouth. It went from ear to ear and from house to house, and before noon scarce a man or woman in Town that did not know it, or eager was every one to tell his neighbor of the good news.

"Good News!" it must have been to those who had watched and waited for it, forty long days and nights.

"Good news from home. Good news for me and others as deep, blue sea."

Picture, if you can, the changed scene in those households when the good news came. The dark cloud which hung like a funeral pall and shut out hope, has vanished, the great weight which pressed so heavily has been removed, the consciousness upon which cankered care was making visible marks is contented, and the eyes bright and cheerful, and the heart is filled with unmeasured happiness.

And what of those who went down to the sea, who were tossed about on the great ocean, driven hither and thither like a mere waif on the foam-crowned waves? How eagerly they waited and watched for the promised land! How anxiously they listened for the welcome words, "all ho!" and "ho!" For fifty days and fifty nights they were "rocked in the cradle of the deep." Can you measure their joy when the cliffs of old Ireland came in sight? When the old weather-beaten mariner from the mast-head signalled "land ho!" We fancy we can see them throwing the first eager to catch the first sight of the desired object to them on earth; and when it came into full view, what a shout of thanksgiving must have gone up from that deck to God who controls the winds and waves, and who had so signally delivered them from their greatest peril. Safe! Thank God they are safe.

Parliament Yesterday.

Some returns and reports were laid on the table.

The Banking Resolutions were then taken up, and the debate upon them occupied the whole session. The following amendment mentioned in yesterday's Ottawa telegram, was proposed by Mr. Hunkle, and carried after a long discussion:

"No new bank shall issue notes or commence the business of banking until $200,000 capital shall have been bona fide paid up, until it shall have obtained from the Treasury Board a certificate that said condition has been complied with, and the Treasury Board shall, before granting such a certificate, be satisfied in such way as shall be prescribed in the regulations to be made by the said Board, that the said amount of capital of the banks has been bona fide paid up."

The other amendments of which notice was given are also carried, and the House adjourned at 11 o'clock.

The Curling Match.

The match between Belleville and Kingston for the Ontario Medal was not closed until nearly six o'clock yesterday evening, and much to the surprise of those who witnessed the opening of the game, resulted in a victory for the Kingston Curlers.

About twenty-five o'clock, after an hour's play, both Belleville and Kingston were considerably ahead, and it was generally thought by on-lookers that Belleville would carry off the medal. But Kingston turned out after lunch and kept gaining until the close of the game. The following is the score:

Majority in favor of Kingston 17 to 17. Kingston displayed a good deal of skill in entering the lists with two Rinks against Kingston, and when it is considered that the Curlers from that City two or three years ago swept every rink before them, it is not surprising that Kingston and Quebec, the rivals met at all surprising.

In the evening the Kingston Curlers were entertained by the Belleville Curlers at Hantling's, where supper was served in that cheer's best style. A very pleasant evening was passed, and the best of feeling prevailed throughout.

RED RIVER.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 15. The New Nation, of this city, which the Canadian merchants under Boulton, Fair and others resulted from enthusiasm and sympathy for the prisoners, was so long as one was kept in confinement the rest would not leave, and on account of this consideration, the community was thereby ennobled, and absconded.

Twenty-four prisoners remained behind this morning, refusing to swear to keep the peace and help the Provisional Government to maintain the order. These were afterwards released unconditionally to prevent bloodshed.

The Canadian leaders then demanded a general amnesty for Canadian sympathizers, including Dr. Schultz and W. D. Dase. This Riel refused, and said while he desired peace he was ready and prepared to fight.

Finding no prospect of enforcing this demand, the Canadian forces decided to disband. They at one time numbered over five hundred well armed men, with sixteen ponder cannon, and two tons of gunpowder and cartridges from the lower fort.

The following representatives have been elected by the English people to serve on the Council Board of the new Province Government.—St. Peter's, J. Sinclair; St. James, St. Paul's, Dr. Bird; St. John's, W. Fraser; Hantling, W. Tait; St. John's and Town of Winnipeg, A. G. B. Banatyan. Remaining districts not heard from up to the hour of going to press.

At the election, the conduct of the delegates at the recent Anglo-English Convention was approved, and a vote of thanks given them.

Dr. Bovey, formerly of the Star-Water, and Dr. Schultz, are on their way to Canada via Fort William.

This latter has been banished from the Settlement.

Judge Black, owing to the illness of his wife and the severity of the season, has declined the appointment of delegate to Canada. It is expected at the first meeting of the Council the vacancy will be filled, and delegates and Commissioners will take their departure.

Algierne Sketches.

Mr. "Barnet Cox," as he is familiarly called, a politician, lawyer, and representative of the ultra-conservative set, has travelled far and wide, in Africa, Spain and North Africa, and has returned home with a bagful of quite readable sketches of men and manners. A pretty volume, issued by Dr. Appleton & Co., and entitled "Sketches for Winter Sundays," contains the story of his adventures. The most novel portion of the narrative is that relating to Algiers. Mr. Cox was quite amused by what he saw of the NATIVES.

"Such a mixed and bizarre company of beings at any time must give us pause—

It takes time, inquiry and study to classify the confusion incident to a city so mosaic in its character and people. The different nationalities and costumes were like myriad flowers at a fair. The thirty-six years of French occupation has not greatly changed the shell, much less the kernel of the Orientalism and Mohammedanism here prevailing. The most 1 use of the city

(Algiers), the more I see that French occupation and its un-Puritanic ideas of social life have not made much progress in the case of changing the distinctive civilization of North Africa. It is again, the French hold this city and the country as far as the desert, by the aid of forts and soldiers; it is said, moreover, that there are more cafes, social places, tobacco shops, and other signs of French life, than in any town of the same size in France. But these are for the sixteenth century French, who regard Algiers as a place of exile and hope, when they realize sufficient means, to return to France. Ever the peasants have and desire their home is not permanent. The French adventurers on their boat said "Au revoir" to their friends.

What with the danger of outbreaks, and the roughest usage, earthquakes can give them just experienced one in the Port best of summer, the property of Algiers is likely to run hand in hand with

Whooping Cough. It will relieve and cure you.—For all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, nothing can surpass its beneficial effects. Sold by Druggists.

Cure for Piles. Dr. J. Briggs' Pile Remedy is offered to the sufferers of this distressing disease with a confidence warranted by its success for their relief. Sold by Druggists.

FROSTED FEET, Chilblains, Corns, Blisters, Bad Nails, &c., are positively cured by the use of Dr. J. Briggs' Modern Curative. This Remedy has been compounded with great care, and used as directed, never fails. Sold by Druggists.

TRIAL OF PRINCE BONAPARTE.

TUESDAY, March 21.—The High Court of Justice was occupied this morning and afternoon in the trial of Prince Bonaparte. The court room was crowded. Among the most conspicuous persons present were Madame Nef, mother of the Prince, and Louis Nef, brother of Victor. At half-past ten the jurors were called and took down. At noon the jury chosen entered the box and were sworn. As soon as these formalities were completed, Prince Pierre Bonaparte, the accused, was brought into court, attended by a Captain of gendarmes. The most serious witnesses, and the accused was most solemn. The Griffler read the act of accusation. The Prince waived the reading of his rank and title. The usual interrogatories were addressed to the accused, who replied with great self-possession. The articles leading to prove his criminality were read on the table before the prisoner. They consisted of a pistol, cane, hat, and two cards. The President of the Court delivered an eloquent address to the jury. The advocates for the party called demanded that the Court required the presence of Mr. Rochefort, and the President replied he would give the necessary orders. The first witness examined was Bonaparte, Comptroller of Police, who testified to taking the deposition of the Prince immediately after his shooting. The Secretary of the Comptroller was the second witness, and his evidence corroborated that of the first. The third witness was Dr. De Foville. His testimony was that he was the first to see the Prince. He was subjected to a rigid cross-examination. Factual questions were asked him. He was brought into court in charge of two gendarmes. His replies to the questions asked were so incoherent, and his conduct so defiant, that the President ordered him to retire. He then pronounced judgment of guilty of murder in language, and on the requisition of the Prosecutor, was removed to prison. His disposition was read in his absence. The conduct of M. Rochefort is generally condemned. M. Foville seems too greatly excited to testify properly, but his behavior gains in comparison with that of Bonaparte.

TRIAL OF PRINCE BONAPARTE.
Tours, March 22.—The High Court of Justice opened today the trial of Prince Bonaparte.

Slight changes have been made in the arrangement of the court room. The judges now sit at the upper end of the hall, with the President and his assistants on their right, clerks and officers in the centre, and jury, prisoner with his counsel, and spectators on the left. The remainder of the apartment is devoted to spectators, but the space is very limited.

The first witness examined to-day was M. Muller, who came in between two gentlemen. He gave his testimony with firmness, but made no attempt at display. He left the letter sent by Prince Bonaparte to Rochefort was not a provocation but an insult. On being asked if he was aware, he replied he lived in a district outside the city, and could have no sight of the letter. He incidentally blamed the government for delay in the arrest of the Prince after shooting, whereupon he was reprimanded by the President of Court.

The Prince rose excitedly and declared M. Muller and Groussin had not been shot. He shot him. This the witness positively denied, and the audience seemed inclined to hiss the Prince.

The President General insisted that the witness should be removed to prison, and the lawyers demanded that he remain and give the remainder of his testimony.

Several servants of the accused were placed on the stand, and some of his personal friends. The latter defended the defence by displaying too much zeal.

Paul De Cassagne, who was next examined, was insolent in his manner towards the lawyers for the prosecution. Larocq, who testified in favor of accused, was at one point called to question by the Court because he showed excess of violence.

All witnesses for defence testified they noticed a scum on the prisoner's cheek after the attack, but the physician who was called in at the time to examine the Prince, said he did not see the scum, and that he saw no signs of blood on the face of the Prince before the attack of the knife. The audience was much excited by this contradiction in the defence.

It was attempted to prove that the Prince did not shoot until Rochefort had been shot, but also that a plot had been made of the Prince before the attack of the knife de Auroit, but the evidence failed to sustain either allegation.

It is expected that Rochefort will be executed to-morrow.

ATTENTION.

THE attention of the public is directed to a Sugar Coated Liver Pill, put up in the undressed, agreeable to take, and retain in its operation. At this time of year is very essential, and when taken in conjunction with Sarsaparilla (also put up at Dominion Drug Store), the most beneficial result may be looked for. Torpidity of the Liver is relieved by the Pills, and all the cutaneous diseases arising from an impure blood is entirely removed by Sarsaparilla. This is now a quick medicine, but such as are warranted by the subscribers, and fully approved of by the Faculty.

are mixed up in a very serious conspiracy, of which the authorities hold the evidence and will produce at a public trial. So much the better, as we are somewhat incredulous about these conspiracies after previous tales of alarm. The prisoners, so far as the public is concerned, are unanimous in their praise of them, and only demand to be immediately tried.

In the rue Amstel, a husband has killed his wife, and then committed suicide. He has been observed to be very depressed since attending Trochu's execution. By a letter which he wrote to a neighbor he accused her former master of seducing his wife. The husband severed the poor woman's head with a razor, opened her body, believing she was the cause of his misfortune, and scattered the viscera on the floor.

The newest way of advertising in the journals has just been adopted by the "dry goods store" in Paris, viz: To publish a list of the shops, it divides, where the different countries for special articles exist, and the department where the "darning sacrifice" take place.

Prince Pierre Napoleon, who stands charged with murder, having a inventory taken of his goods and chattels at Aston, where the crime was committed. Excepting the collection of arms, there is very little else worth seeing. The inventory is being taken by the police, and is to be brought to the hammer. All this looks as if His Highness expects to bid his native land good night. The High Court at Tours is being fitted up with the view of packing the public like a box of sardines, and after accommodating the special jury, the local magistrates, the officials, the home and foreign journalists, there will not be room for more than 170 of the general public. Everything is set and dry for the opening of the Court on the 21st. The guard of honor are arranged and the ceremonies fixed.

Marriages now-a-days, and in high life particularly, do not appear to be made in haste. Formerly there was one matrimonial broker in Paris, who effected a great many marriages de raison, where the nuptials take place of Cupid. Now there are five of these brokers, all in the west end districts, among whom, the rich come of which they boast. He who drives fast cars, you know, must himself be fast. Ladies too, have taken to the matrimonial market, and successfully as their sisters do in New York, to banking and the gold business. The Emperor, or, since he has been relieved of the cares of governing, has been pointed out as a model between young married couples. He has two of these affairs now on hand where the "Love of the Angels" have flown after the three days' marriage, and husbands are obliged to defy the expense of the honor on Tuesday his majesty, Port Said, crowned with flowers and wreathed in laurel, in the face of symmetrical beauty, and a lady's execution—a luxury denied to malefactors—now hangs in a butcher's shop in rue Montmartre, with the customary hair for prize coin. His armorial is composed of his own tailors and lace. He has just made his entrance his exit succeeds in the shape of storks and stirlings, that every resident in Paris will be most of possessing the next few days—just as every printing office in the United States the original Franklin press—France the veritable cause of Voltaire, and the Catholic Churches throughout the universe the title of Saint Peter.

The demi-monde has come out strong and gaily these last few days of our lovely spring. These "Ladies of the Lake," still patronized by the masses—active or borrowed—Bibbitts, who are in the habit of their visitors confined to soaked ponds, but have as puppies, with golden curls, have given way to little girls, aged about nine years, got up with their hair, which is the only surprise, left by skillful.

There is a scene of the house of Haze, Coboury Gotta—Prince Philippe, aged 20, who has been so taken up by the attractions of the green rooms of the minor theatres, and the masked balls, that he has not found a moment's time to deliver his letters of introduction to the dwellers in high life. His uncle, the Duke Ernest, says nothing, but his mother is heartbroken, "At all events," she is reported to have said, "I would prefer my son's union with an actress, to his compromising the honor of any one's wife." Is this arrow aimed at any special royal quarry?

We are very good now. Our carnival has commenced, which will enable us to feel and highly expectant, and which is illustrated by the holding of a cat fight on the eve of Lent, ostensibly to give those who have indulged in the pleasures of eating, meat, all worldly balls, and, instead, we will have contests without end, and possibly a little, and which will be drawn down, and when the service company retire, Ash Wednesday passed off, with choruses composed, by women, almost wholly, and the Pair Politique, and some of the grand principles of equality—memoria bene, quia pulvis es et in pulverem reverteris—Before the Revolution of 1793, the Kings of France were sprinkled with ashes, and the ashes of the oak, and the people, with those of any other sort of wood. One nobleman condemned to death in 1801, was sprinkled with the ashes of the oak, and the people, with those of any other sort of wood. Good Friday. Justice having been done, the party really to chapel.

Reagan has petitioned to be restored to his chair of Hebrew and Syriac, now vacant, in the college of France, and from which he was removed by a side-wind, some six years ago. It is not unlikely he will, as heretofore, be chosen by the Government, but whether the Ministry will see the choice, remains to be seen. Likely as the tendency of the times is to restore all things, the author of the "Life of Jesus," may be success, especially as a student, who is potential just now, claims toleration, even for error, and practices it, by excluding from the Protestant churches, as head of the council, all such pastors as are not of his "story."

Another march out of place, is traveling our planet—Orelle the First—whose Kingdom is in Anconia, somewhere in South America. He is better known at Bordeaux, as M. de Toulon, an attorney at law, but who, during a "long vacation" some years ago, managed to win the love of the Anconian, and was elected King. Like the By in amber, the wonder was, how the devil he got there. Formerly his Majesty was shown into the laborer's prison at Clermont, for the vulgar offence of owing money. He now sends the Government to recognize his title, and aid in his "restoration." Since Mexico, monarchism, especially on the American continent, is decidedly unfashionable. There is nothing for Orelle I, but to fall back on Union, and enjoy his Henry V., excellent macaroni. He would rather take the wind, and present Pto-Sino with a little stinky piece, he would have a chance of making good his claims, and having them allowed, he could brush himself with other fables great ones. His children, to come, could claim His Holiness for sponsor, who would also claim a prophetic vision Orelle would be gathered to his fathers.

The meeting of Americans to present a mark of condolence to the widow and family of Anne Burleigh, has been decided to call a more general gathering on a future day.

THE EXHIBITION.—We hope the College gentlemen are satisfied with their performance last evening. They certainly had the audience the town could afford, the only defect was that they gave us more than four cents worth. The essays on Canadian subjects were good and well rendered. Mr. McIntyre, who has been in the city, while the men with Greek and Latin were at simple justice to their compositions. As regards the latter, we were pleased to notice in the audience several gentlemen to whom such exhibitions are familiar, viz: Rev. J. G. Smith, M. A., Rev. S. Jones, M. A., Rev. J. C. Smith, M. A., Thos. Holden, M. A., together with several other University men, and one, a representative of old Oxford—the Rev. Mr. Baldwin. The council, senators, and undergraduates appeared in academics. The majority of the program was a success. Dominus Solvum fit, (words arranged by Prof. Wright and music by Prof. Crozier), a good anthem and will form an integral part of College celebration hereafter. It was sung twice last evening, and we hope will often heard in the Hall. We have a letter to write with Mr. Crozier with regard to the song sung for this morning our debt could not tell whether Mr. Crozier said that he saw I saw he saw, and has been around asking the foreman which he had rather do a song. Besides the gentlemen referred to, Messrs. McMahon, Cook, Cline, Parrott, Peterson, Harvey and McIntyre, deserve special mention. We are glad to have occasion to congratulate the Undergraduates on their success.

He concluded Victor Hugo with Prince Bonaparte, and described the latter in terms of severity. The Abortion Case.

We have examined the remainder of the evidence given in the abortion case, and most of it being unfit for publication, shall not reproduce it. The additional evidence, unfortunately, does not throw any light upon the case, and every one except those interested in keeping it concealed, will regret that the jury could not bring home the time to the perpetrator.

The evidence also establishes the fact that an abortion was produced upon the unfortunate girl, that instruments were used for this purpose, that she was, in fact, foully murdered. The evidence also establishes the fact that an attempt was made to conceal the cause of her death, by a hasty burial, that if it had not been for the interference of the Coroner, Jane Dwyer would have been in her grave six or seven hours after death, and no one, except those who were attendant upon her and the person who committed the murder, would have known the cause of her death. The evidence also establishes the fact that no effort was made by those who knew what she had done to find out who committed this double murder, that no magisterial investigation was advised before death, and no investigation was sought for after death.

It is not very credible to us as a community that such crimes as these can be committed with impunity and the perpetrators go unpunished. If a man shot down another in cold blood, the whole machinery of the law would be set in motion to discover who did the deed. Detectives would be on his track, and another effort not expense would be spared to find the crime home. If a man is stabbed and picked up half dead and carried into a Doctor's office, there is no false delicacy manifested in having the most searching investigation to find out who used the knife. But because, formerly, red-handed murder takes another form—a form which, to the disgrace of this civilized age, is winked at by many, and looked upon as some circles as justifiable, some professions are content to do deliberately kill the unborn infant and foully murder the mother, and no questions are asked, no investigation is made, no detectives are placed on his track, no expense is gone to, but the poor murdered victim is put away out of sight as soon as possible, so that the crime and circumstances connected with it may be quickly forgotten.

The Coroner's Jury deserves every credit for the patient and thorough investigation they gave. The law is a very delicate one, and we hope that strong representations will be made to the officers of the Government respecting this matter, so that the law may be speedily amended. Should the Government will provide some measure by which, in case like these, the ends of justice will be served.

THE HOUSE ON SATURDAY.

Harbingers of Spring.

We have read of "winter lingering in the lap of spring," and of "March coming in like a lion, and going out like a lamb," and of the crows being the "best harbingers of spring," and a great many sayings of a similar character. But as in the summer we say "all signs fall in a drought," we may say all signs have failed in this winter of unprecedented storms.

When did we have more complete control of the elements than yesterday, the 27th day of March, anno domini, 1870? When did the old ice-bank bluster and storm faster, fiercer, or more furious?

Did he not block the coast so that no vehicle could pass? Did he not pit huge drifts on the sidewalks so that you could not go to Church? Did he not shut the Sunday Schools, and make the Churches look like the lean kind of some warbler's host after being almost decimated? Talk about "Winter lingering in the lap of Spring!"

It looks very much as if he were endeavoring to creep into the houses of the earth. And then who can believe there is anything in the saying, that "March coming in like a lion, goes out like a lamb," after what we have witnessed yesterday and today? He was lion like enough when he wrote, the fleecy messengers from the clouds still come thick and fast. And is this what the birds were harbingers of? These great mountains of snow packed firm as ice, blocking up the roads, and leaving us in from the outside world for the next four or five days. Very spring-like!

Drainage.

During the last session of the Ontario Legislature an Act was passed to authorize the advance of public money to a limited amount, to promote the improvement of land in Ontario by works of drainage. The Commissioner of Public Works has forwarded copies of this Drainage Act, with instructions to the various municipalities, inviting their co-operation in carrying out the law. The blank forms are conveniently arranged, and will enable the township officers, with very little inconvenience, to transmit the necessary information as to the swamp lands of their districts.

It has long been known that there are large tracts of land, principally in the western part of the Province, composed of rich alluvial deposits, which only require a proper system of drainage to make them the best and most productive lands we have. From a report issued from the Public Works Department, we find it is estimated that the area of unproductive swamps consists of over 500,000 acres. This land is situated in some of the wealthiest and most fertile sections of the Province, causing malaria and fever, obstructing communication, dividing townships, and retarding the prosperity of the country. The whole quantity of swamp lands is estimated at the Assistant Commissioner of Public Works that 370,000 acres may be drained by gravitation alone. They are as follows:

Counsell of Kent and Essex, 40,000 do Lambton (unreported), 10,000 do Perth, 10,000
do Simcoe and Victoria, 12,000 do Carleton and Russell, 10,000 do Wellington and Grey, 10,000 do Middlesex, 10,000 do London (unreported), 10,000
Total, 100,000

By the Act already alluded to, the Provincial Government is empowered to co-operate with the Municipalities in the drainage of these lands, each party bearing a share of the expense. The result of the survey so far, in that these swamps can be drained by means of main and branch drains (leaving the side drainage from the lands to be done by the occupants) at a cost varying from 87 cents to $1.50 an acre, giving an increase in the value of the land, drained varying from $4 to $6 an acre. These facts, taken in conjunction with the increased healthfulness, facility of communication and through these lands, and increase of population by their settlement, are evidences of the advantage to be derived by the Province from the execution of such works.

The quickest passage on recent between England and Australia has been made by the "Patriarch," she made the passage from London to Sydney in 40 days.

In London, on the 22nd of February, the bodies of five persons whose deaths were accelerated by "extreme want" within the week. The problem solved—a young man standing in the rear of a long train, remarked to his companion that the train seemed to move very slowly; and a moment after, "but perhaps it is because we are in the last car!"

JUST RECEIVED AT

Grim's "The Knights" Times, gets of the following:

A young man from the city had been paying attention to a young lady of this city with a view to matrimony, or any other money she may chance to have, grew chivalrous the other night, and offered to undertake almost any task, however difficult, to prove his love and devotion. "Did you," said he, with a truly knightly rhapsody (although he was not worth a rap). "Did you take a lion in the jungle, or restrain an office seeker on his way to Washington, and I will do it. Ask me to climb the loftiest peak of the Himalaya, or attend a tumultuous assembly of women's rights women in opposition to female suffrage, and it is done. Command that I should bring snow flakes from the tropical seas of Africa, or an iceberg from the arctic seas of Alaska, and I will do it. The madman, you can see easily won my commendation and contribute to my pleasure. There is a youth, Weston is his name, who starts from Portland in Maine, is even, now stretching his legs with eager interest in the Chicago Tribune his noble example and—

"What?"

He took the hint and walked.

A man down in Maine says that he builds a house, he will have doing doors—they're so handy in case of a fire.

A crusty old bachelor, he thinks it of a woman, and not wrong, that he should be released.

A candidate for medical honors having thrown himself into a fever from his incapacity to answer the questions asked, "How would you avoid a person for a chemist?" He replied, "I would send him up here to be examined."

A condition of relationship—A man named Hogg was tried for sheep-stealing before Judge Bacon, and when asked what he had to say why should he be released, he did not pass on him, venturing to claim relationship to his lordship. "That may be," said the Judge, "but he is not Bacon, but he is Hogg."

How it struck the child—Little four year old Bessie went to church. "O mother," said she, when she came home, "I've heard such a smart minister! He stamped, and pounded, and made such a noise; and then he got so mad he shook his face at the folks and there wasn't anybody dared go up and fight him."

At a trial in an Alabama town not long since, one of the witnesses, an old lady of some eighty years, was closely questioned by the opposing counsel relative to the clearness of her sight. "Can you see me?" "Yes," she answered. "How well can you see me?" responded the lawyer. "Well enough," retorted the lady, "to see that you're neither a negro nor a lion nor a gentleman, and answer him before the house and silence the counsel."

A poor Irishman applied at a Magistrate for relief, and upon some doubt being expressed as to whether he was a proper object for parochial relief he was enforced his will with much earnestness. "Och, yer honor," said he, "I'd starved long since but for me cat."—"But for what I asked the astonished interrogator.—"My cat," rejoined the Irishman—"Your cat—how?"—"Sure, yer honor, I would her seven times for supper a time, and she was always home before I got there myself."

House of Lords.

DEBATE IN PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, March 29.—In the House of Lords last evening, a Bill for the protection of life and property in Ireland, which has already passed the Commons, was read a first time. The other business was unimportant.

In the House of Lords this evening, Lord Dufferin moved the second reading of the Bill for the preservation of peace in Ireland, and made a speech justifying the wisdom and necessity of the measure. Lord Cranborne declared the Fenian convicts as a ministerial mistake. The House, after further discussion, adjourned.

House of Commons.

In the House of Commons, the Marquis of Hartington, Postmaster-General, in reply to the question of Mr. O'Kelly, member for Dundee, said that, owing to the recent reduction in transatlantic postage, steamers heretofore carrying the American mails had now refused them, consequently contracts had been made with German and other lines. Discontent with the present system had been officially brought to the notice of the American Government.

The House then went into Committee on the Irish Land Bill. The motion to adjourn the debate on the subject for a week was rejected.

Mr. Needham moved the continuation of the Ulster clause for compensating outgoing tenants.

Mr. Gladstone opposed the amendment, which was in effect rejected.

Mr. Simms, member for Banbury, moved to extend the Ulster clause throughout the kingdom.

Mr. Gladstone opposed this also, as did the Attorney General, and it was rejected by division by 253 majority. Subsequently an amendment for extending the clause in Ulster itself was lost by 279 majority, and the House adjourned.

PROCLAMATION BY THE CAPTAIN-GENERAL. HAVANA, March 29.—Capt. General De Rodas, on his arrival at Puerto Principe, issued a proclamation addressed to the insurgents, in which he said: "Although you are rebels, I do not seek your lives, and advise you to submit in due to save yourselves; for as soon as operations have commenced in the eastern department, they will be prosecuted with energy, let the end be what it may. All those who surrender their arms to any legitimate authority will be well received, and their lives are hereby guaranteed, but from the benefits of this offer your principal leaders and law-breakers of the so-called Cuban Government are excluded."

"The Maple."

BY MR. DANIEL. All hail to the broad maple shade, With its fair and fragrant shade— A type of our youthful country, In its pride and lovability: Whether in the Spring or Summer, Or in the dreary Fall, 'Mid nature's forest children, 'Tis the fairest of them all.

Down sunny slopes and valleys Her graceful form is seen, Her wide unobscured branches The sun-burnt rafter screen. 'Mid dark-leaved ferns and oaks Her ivy-like colors shine, Like the dawns of a brighter future On the setting of the pine.

She crowns the pleasant hill-top, Whispers on breezy downs, And casts refreshing shadows Over the streets of our busy towns; She viandates the scholar's eye, Shelters the weary head, And soothes the crumpled brow, As nature's own cradle.

When the winter fogs are yielding To the sun's returning away, And many groups are speeding To greet the summer day, The sweet and willing jingles Which from her welcome spout, Tell of the golden plenty Which here waits harvest out.

When sweet voiced Spring, soft breathing, Breaks nature's icy sleep, And the forest boughs are swaying In the breeze of the deep, In her fair and budding beauty, A fitting emblem she, Of our land of promise, Of hope, of liberty.

And when her leaves, all crimson, Drop silently and fall, Like drops of life-blood weeping From her verdant and tall; They tell how fast and freely Would her children's blood be shed, Ere our land's doom be read, Should such a doom's hand tread.

And when her leaves, all crimson, Drop silently and fall, Like drops of life-blood weeping From her verdant and tall; They tell how fast and freely Would her children's blood be shed, Ere our land's doom be read, Should such a doom's hand tread.

are no flaws in the body or throat part, that they have good guinea points. A screw of one make will drive into oak as easily as others into pine, and endure having twice the force brought against it.

HAY FEVEN.—Few of our readers are without some experience, either in them selves or through their friends, of the distressing affection known as "hay fever," or "rose cold," a kind of catarrh which appears about the period of the summer at about the same time, and the summer. An eminent microscopist, troubled with this complaint, has recently announced his belief that it is caused by the development, at the season indicated, of a peculiar form of low organic life well known to microscopists. They appeared to him to be developed in the cavities and recesses connected with the nose, although not in the nose itself, since its ordinary secretion did not contain them, and they were only found when a violent sneezing, or blowing of the nose, took place. If this be the fact, it is quite probable that the true cause of the disease is to be found in the snuffing up of the vapor of carbonic acid; this substance having the property of destroying the vitality of microscopical growths, and preventing their multiplication.

ACTION OF SUN'S RAYS ON FLAME.—It has been a favorite dogma from almost time immemorial that the light of the sun will extinguish a material fire, a burning candle. A series of experiments recently prosecuted in England by Mr. Tomlinson, led him to the conclusion, however, that direct sunlight or diffused daylight does not exert the slightest influence upon a lighted candle or other flame, except in cases of very small flames.

A new kind of metal roofing has been introduced in France. The covering, instead of being continuous, like corrugated iron, zinc, or lead, is composed of separate thin sheets of galvanized iron, and shaped something like our ordinary pan tiles, but susceptible, of course, of various forms according to convenience of fancy.

Which was Which. Persons accustomed to writing narratives often experience the difficulty of using pronouns, so that there shall be no mistake as to the noun for which they stand. In speaking of two persons of the same sex, there is continual tendency to confusion. It is ludicrously illustrated in the following account of a case of assault and battery. Said the witness:

"There was Mike and the dog there, yer honor; so 'he' as I use very vague—"

Judge—"Who 'F' Mike?"

Witness—"No, the dog, yer honor. And I says to him—"

Judge—"To whom 'F' the dog?"

Witness—"To Mike, yer honor. Get away wid yer!—and I just hauled off and hit him."

Judge—"Hit Mike?"

Witness—"No, the dog, yer honor, and he made a rush for me."

Judge—"Who, 'F' the dog?"

Witness—"Mike, yer honor. And I put a stone throw'd at him, and it colt him over his head."

Judge—"Throw a stone at Mike?"

Witness—"The dog, yer honor. And he got up and hit me again."

Judge—"The dog?"

Witness—"No, Mike. And wid that he ran off."

Judge—"Mike?"

Witness—"No, the dog. And then he came back, and got me down, yer honor."

Judge—"The dog came back at you?"

Witness—"No, Mike, yer honor, and he didn't hurt any at all."

Judge—"Who 's' hurt?"

Witness—"The dog, yer honor!"
